ABOUT THE ROUND TOP FILM FESTIVAL

The Round Top Film Festival (RTFF) is committed to enriching our community through the power of film and the arts. Our mission is to ignite creativity, encourage learning, and provide a magical cultural experience that leaves audiences inspired. We are dedicated to curating a program that includes the best films from around the world for a unique, sophisticated, distinct audience, creating opportunities for open dialogue, appreciation, and the celebration of diverse voices of cinema.

GET TO KNOW THE FOUNDERS

Founded by Shanna Schanen and Skylar Schanen, a dynamic mother-daughter duo, the Round Top Film Festival embodies the spirit of creativity, education, and community enrichment. Their roots run deep in Round Top, Texas, where they've witnessed its evolution from a quiet retreat to a vibrant hub. They're proud to contribute to its cultural growth while celebrating and preserving its unique charm.

Our passionate, women-led team is dedicated to bringing the excitement of the film industry to our community. Through film screenings, workshops, and events, we aim to educate and inspire the next generation of filmmakers, celebrating the diverse avenues within the art of filmmaking and the beauty of Round Top, Texas.
